

SaleSpider.com offers free classified ads to small business owners; members can post classifieds across multiple categories and regions with no restrictions. The SaleSpider classified ad engine lets you buy and sell through b2b classifieds without any associated fees. It's completely free.

SaleSpider's free classifieds allow for companies to build highly targeted traffic from business owners in specific industries, business segments and locations.

A SaleSpider.com member, Gia Latchman of Florida, said, "When I signed-up, I knew nothing about online ads. Today, I can say I'm an expert in online business and know exactly to whom and where I should place my ads".

Another SaleSpider.com member, Terri Stallcop of Oklahoma, said, "I found this website about the same time that I was trying to do split testing of my ads and I was spending a lot of money on Pay Per Click. When I found the free classified ads section I was amazed. I could split test my ads for free, unbelievable. This website lets me test my ads for free. I can see my click through rate, change the ad and improve the number of impressions daily".

Terri continues, "But here's the very best part - I'm getting free targeted traffic to all of my websites from members here! And several have joined me in affiliate programs through my ads! Because of this website, my prospect list gets bigger every day with like-minded people! That's not just super-targeted traffic, that's generating tons of free leads to my business!"
